College Motion

15.0" - 15.4"

15.4" Notebook Bag and Backpack in One

The "College Motion" is the clever combination of a college bag and a backpack. The cushioned shoulder straps for the backpack function are hidden in the backside of the backpack and can be used as needed. The comfortable carrying handle as well as the retractable and adjustable shoulder straps with a non-slipping neoprene surface offer numerous carrying options.

The Notebook is optimally protected against shocks in a cushioned compartment (High-Density Foam). The cushioned protective flap offers perfect protection for the Notebook connections. Documents and mobile equipment can be easily stored in the spacious interior compartment or in the additional compartments as well as in the side mesh pockets. The workstation on the front side for pens, CD-ROMs and mobile phone creates order in the bag. The bag flap is fastened with a high-quality synthetic latch.

College Motion is made of durable materials. The floor material is dirt- and water-resistant.
